Resolutions and Orders of the House of Commons.

Martis, 20° Die Martii, 1749.

Resolved,

THAT any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who now are, or hereafter may be, interested in, or entitled unto, such Part of the National Debt, incurred before Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and forty nine, redeemable by Law, which now carries an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, as hath not been subscribed, in pursuance of an Act of this present Session of Parliament, for reducing the several Annuities, which carry an Interest after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the several Rates therein mentioned, and who do, on or before the Thirtieth Day of May next, subscribe their Names, or signify their Consent, to accept of an Interest of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to commence from the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifty five, subject to the same Provisions, Notices, and Clauses of Redemption, which their respective Four per Cents are now liable to, shall, in lieu of their present Interest, be entitled unto, and receive, an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifty, and from and after the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifty, an Interest of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, until the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifty five; and that no Part of the same shall be liable to be redeemed, until after the said Twenty fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and fifty five.

Resolved,

That such Part of the National Debt, incurred before Michaelmas, One thousand seven hundred and forty nine, redeemable by Law, which now carries an Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and which shall not be subscribed on or before the Thirtieth Day of May next, be redeemed and paid off.

Mercurii, 21° Die Martii, 1749.

Ordered,

That Mr. Speaker do forthwith give Notice, that so much of the Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, created in the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty six, and so much of the Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, as were raised by a Lottery in the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty seven, as have not been subscribed, in Pursuance of an Act passed this Session of Parliament, and shall not be subscribed on or before the Thirtieth Day of May next, will be redeemed and paid off on the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, agreeable to the Clauses and Powers of Redemption contained in the several Acts of Parliament for creating the said Annuities respectively.

Ordered,

That Mr. Speaker do forthwith give Notice, that so much of the Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, created in the Year One thousand seven hundred and forty eight, as have not been subscribed, pursuant to an Act passed this Session of Parliament, and shall not be subscribed on or before the Thirtieth Day of May next, will be redeemed and paid off on the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, agreeable to the Clauses and Power of Redemption, contained in the Act of Parliament for creating the said Annuities.

Ordered,

That Mr. Speaker do forthwith give Notice, that so much of the Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, created in the Years One thousand seven hundred and forty seven, and One thousand seven hundred and forty nine, as have not been subscribed, pursuant to an Act passed this Session of Parliament, and shall not be subscribed on or before the Thirtieth Day of May next, will be redeemed and paid off on the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, agreeable to the Clauses and Powers of Redemption contained in the several Acts of Parliament for creating the said Annuities respectively.

Ordered,

That Mr. Speaker do forthwith give Notice that so much of the Annuities charged upon wrought Plate, and payable at the Exchequer, as have not been subscribed, pursuant to an Act passed this Session of Parliament, and shall not be subscribed on or before the Thirtieth Day of May next, will be redeemed and paid off on the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, agreeable to the Clauses and Power of Redemption contained in the Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty upon wrought Plate, and for applying Money arising from the clear Produce (by Sale of the forfeited Estates) towards answering his Majesty's Supply; and for taking off the Drawbacks upon Hops exported for Ireland; and for Payment of Annuities to be purchased after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, at the Exchequer, redeemable by Parliament, and for appropriating Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and to prevent counterfeiting Receipts and Warrants of the Officers of the South Sea Company; and for explaining a late Act concerning Foreign Salt cellared and locked up before the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and to give a further Time for paying Duties on certain Apprentices Indentures; and for Relief of Thomas Vernon, Esq; in relation to a Parcel of Senna imported in the Year One thousand seven hundred and sixteen.

Which Resolutions and Orders, thus signified and published by me, are to be sufficient Notices of the said several intended Redemptions.

23 March 1749. AR. ONSLOW, Speaker.

Algiers, February 21. A few Days ago was brought into this Port, a Portugueſe Veſſel of 34 Guns, which ſailed from Oporto for Braſil, laden with Wine, Oil, and other Merchandizes. She had 34 Men on board, who defended her ſo very couragiouſly, that there were only four alive when taken. She had on board 110 Paſſengers, who are all made Slaves, amongſt whom were three Prieſts and ſix Women. As ſhe is an excellent Sailor, it is propoſed to fit her out as a Cruizer. Since the taking of this Prize, ſome others are brought in, and amongſt them, a Veſſel from Lubec, laden with Timber, and one from Braſil, laden with Tobacco, Cocoa, &c.

Petersbourg, March 21. A few Days ago, her Imperial Majeſty returned to this City, with the whole Court, from Czarkazelo.

Genoa, March 23. There ſailed from hence a few Days ago, an armed Bark to cruize in the Canal of Piombino; and ſhe is ſoon to be followed by a Xebeque with 140 Men, a Galliot, and two large Feluccas. Three Gallies are likewiſe getting ready; all which are deſigned as Cruizers againſt the Corſairs of Barbary.

Turin, March 24. A Courier is arrived here from the Chevalier de Oſorio, our Ambaſſador at the Court of Spain, who brings Advice, that the 8th of next Month is fixed for the Celebration of the Marriage, by Proxy, of the Infanta Dona Maria Antoinette with the Duke of Savoy; and that Princeſs will ſet out a few Days after for this Court. The King has lately appointed the Marqueſs de Breil, the Marqueſs de St. Laurent, and the Count de Bougin, to be Miniſters of State to his Majeſty.

Warſaw, March 24. Advice having been received by Expreſs from Dreſden, that the King would certainly ſet out from thence on the 20th Inſtant for this City, ſeveral Lords who were gone into the Country are already returned hither.

Stockholm, March 27. A new Miniſter is ſoon expected here from the Elector of Saxony, to replace M. de Suhm, who is on his Departure for Dreſden. Prince George of Heſſe Caſſel is alſo ſoon expected here.

Copenhagen, March 28. The Baron de Backhorff, his Majeſty's Miniſter to the Diet of the Empire, arrived here from Ratisbon on the 20th Inſtant; and 'tis expected will ſoon ſet out again for Vienna, as his Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to that Court.

Vienna, March 28. On Monday laſt the Empreſs went to Schonbrun for the firſt Time ſince her Lying-in. Count Colloredo is at length ſet out on his Embaſſy to the Court of Turin. Her Imperial Majeſty has appointed Count Hamilton to be Preſident of the Council of Commerce at Trieſte, a Place of great Importance.

Dreſden, March 29. The laſt Part of the Baggage of the Court will ſet forward for Warſaw on the 5th of next Month, and his Majeſty's Departure from hence for Poland is ſtill fixed for the 20th.

Ratisbon, April 2. This Day the Prince of Tour Taxis, Principal Commiſſary from their Imperial Majeſties, being ſeated on a Throne erected on Purpoſe, and ſurrounded by a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction, received from the Hands of the Deputation of Twenty Perſons appointed by the Magiſtrates, the Homage this City pays his Imperial Majeſty as Supreme Head of the Empire.

Verſailles, April 2. On the 31ſt paſt M. Berkenrode, Ambaſſadour from the Republick of Holland, had his firſt publick Audience of his Majeſty, of the Queen, the Dauphin, and all the reſt of the Royal Family; after which the King ſet out for Choiſy.

Paris, April 3. The King has ordered the Count de Mailly to repair to Rouſſillon, to receive the Infanta of Spain, future Dutcheſs of Savoy, and to conduct her to Languedoc, where ſhe is to be received by the Duke de Richelieu; in Provence ſhe is to be received by the Count de Maillebois; and in Dauphine, by the Count de Marcieux. The King of Sardinia himſelf, it is believed, will receive her upon the Frontiers of Savoy.

Berlin, April 4. The King has appointed the Count de Schulenbourg, whoſe Father was killed at the Battle of Molwitz in Sileſia, to be Marſhal of the Court. On the 24th of laſt Month his Majeſty came hither from Potzdam, when Lord Tyrconnel, the new French Miniſter, had his firſt publick Audience, and delivered his Credential Letters; he had likewiſe his firſt publick Audiences of the two Queens, and of the reſt of the Royal Family the ſame Day. On the 30th the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Queen Mother was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence, and the next Day his Majeſty ſet out for Potzdam.

Amſterdam, April 6. We learn from the Texel, that the two following Ships arrived there on Wedneſday laſt from Batavia, viz. the Princeſs of Orange, and the Bredenhoff, the firſt belonging to the Chamber of Amſterdam, and the other to that of Hoorn. And from Middlebourg we learn, that another Ship from the Eaſt Indies, called the Lekkerland, was alſo arrived at Rammerkens near that City.

Hague, April 7. At the Time of the laſt Commotions at Haerlem, eight Deputies were ſent to the Hague from the Burghers of that Town, in order to make Repreſentations to the States againſt the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Impoſts, and the Method of raiſing them by Collectors. Five of thoſe Deputies, after having been detained here in Priſon for ſome Time, were at laſt ſet at Liberty; but the other three have ſince been ſentenced to be baniſhed, one for Life, the ſecond for 20 Years, and the laſt for 10 Years.
